

Mrs. Neomia Townsend-Pittman

January 22, 1938 - December 12, 2018

NEOMIA TOWNSEND PITTMAN was born January 22, 1938 in Greenwood, Mississippi from the union of Alton Townsend and Zipporah Russell-Townsend. They had 8 children: Florene(d.) (Robert (d.) Brewer, David Townsend, Atteneave(d.) (Willa Mae) Townsend, Tom(d.) (Wilma) Townsend, Charles Townsend (d.), Betty Jean (Atlas) Davis, and Eva(d.)(James) Ingram. She was a meticulous homemaker, wife, mother and best friend. She is known best for her courageous spirit and upfront manner. She spent her time actively seeking the truth of life's questions through Islam and the Muslim community.

Neomia often said I have good friends on this earth, and I do my best to be good to people: you never know who you might need so treat all people good. She treated her neighbors and neighborhood with respect and love: trying to demonstrate by example, she loved her gardening and flowers: she would say wash your windows, cut your grass, wash your car, show God you're grateful for the gift you have been given by maintaining them and keep it clean. She did believe in ethical family traditions and values. She closely watched the politics of our country and expressed her elation from 2008 to 2016 and dismay at the current political climate. She wanted to see the best for all things.

Surah 23 Ayah 111-115

111. "I have rewarded them this Day for their patience and constancy: they are indeed the ones that have achieved Bliss .. :·

112. He will say: "What number of years did ye stay on earth?"

113. They will say: "We stayed a day or part of a day: but ask those who keep account."

114. He will say: "Ye stayed not but a little,- if ye had only known!

115. "Did ye then think that We had created you in jest, and that ye would not be brought back to Us (for account)?"

She often quoted the sentiment from Quran, "surely with struggle comes ease" .

Our mother is now at ease.

Neomia leaves brother David Townsend, sister Betty Jean (Atlas) Davis, four daughters, Dlean, Carol, Michelle, and Cathy Pittman, three grand children Bilal, Malik (Shannon) Garner and Ra'ana Garner-Donnell (Marcel), Caleb & James Garner III, two great grand children Malik Garner Jr, and Marcel Donnell Jr. Marianna and Rianna Meeks She is preceded in death by her husband Nathaniel Pittman, and her son Michael Pittman.
