“ Mom holidays are not the same. Uncle TG cries a lot and so do I. Pain never goes away and the hard part is dealing with it. We all love you and miss you so much. Phyllis, Uncle TG, Nigel and Darrell

“ She was a sweet person and she was a close family friend and I will miss her so much....##imported-begin##Sharifa Harris##imported-end##

“ I first met Addie way back in 1971 when we worked together at the Milwaukee Main Post Office on third shift. We had a mutual friend, Denise Orłowski Splan, and many times on warm summer nights we would sit out in front of the PO and just chat and get to know each other. Addie became a dear friend and, even though our life paths eventually took us in different directions, we never lost sight of the fact that we were good friends. Addie always had a smile and a hug for me whenever we would see each other. We last saw each other about two years ago at a postal workers and retirees luncheon - I was fortunate enough to have my picture taken with her - it is a treasured keepsake now. I loved her smile and her sweet voice - I will miss her greatly. It is my belief she has received her Heavenly reward, and is smiling for God now....love you always, Addie!
