

Mrs. Alice Lorraine LaGrant

February 19, 1936 - May 23, 2019

Alice Lorraine LaGrant's sunrise was on February 19, 1936 in Stanley, Wisconsin. She had a peaceful sunset, surrounded by family, on May 23, 2019 at 6:45 pm in her home in Bastrop LA.

Alice was relocated along with her family at a young age to Milwaukee, WI where her education began in the Milwaukee Public School System; eventually obtaining her GED from MATC, became an EKG Technician through her studies at Concordia College and at the age of 50 returned to MATC receiving her Practical Nursing Diploma.

After being employed in multiple areas she courageously pursued her career in nursing as an LPN until retiring from Nurse's NOW LLC in the year of 2012. Alice received Christ at an early age. By her husband's side she was an active member, serving as a deaconess of the church, until her failing health.

She loved family functions and gatherings where she displayed her passion for playing cards. As the wife of a member of the gospel group The Singing Soul's, she enjoyed traveling with them. Alice was preceded in death by her husband Jessie (pretty mickey)
