

Mr. Alphonso Mallory

December 14, 1987 - November 1, 2017

"Phonso", son of Geneva Mallory, was born December 14, 1987, in Milwaukee, WI. Alphonso received his formal education in the Milwaukee Public School system, playing football for Bayview High School throughout his high school years. He also played semi-pro football, in Racine, WI. He loved watching sports: football, Basketball and wrestling. His favorite team was the Cleveland Browns and the New York Knicks. He attended Guiding Light Missionary Baptist Church, in Milwaukee, WI. He was looking forward to recommitting himself to Christ. Alphonso was a hard working man, who loved his family and spending time with his young sons and looked forward to the birth of his unborn son. How he continually supported his sons will leave a lasting legacy for all to remember. Alphonso's odd sense of humor and Facebook posts kept you laughing. He sometimes left you wondering, if he was serious, but that was just his style. To know him was to love him! Alphonso was employed at Reinhardt Foodservice and was a dedicated employee. God saw fit and call him home to glory. Alphonso, at the age of 29, departed this life on Wednesday, November 1, 2017. Alphonso was preceded in death by his: grandparents, Mr. Walter Mallory and Ms. Mable Bowes; sister, Anjelica Mallory; and brother, Shenandoah Minor. Alphonso leaves to cherish his memories his: mother, Geneva Mallory; fiancée, Ciara Eubanks and her mother, Mary ("Meme") Gillie; three sons: Javon, Trevon and Dayvon (awaiting his arrival); three brothers: Joe Henry Mallory, Robert James Mallory and Walter Leon Mallory, all of Milwaukee, WI. He also leaves to cherish a host of loving uncles, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
