

Mr. Alvin Earl Williams Sr.

April 16, 1953 - October 31, 2012

ALVIN EARL WILLIAMS was born on April 16, 1953 to Jack Williams and Daisy L. Junior-Williams in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He was the youngest child. Alvin received his education from Milwaukee Public Schools, graduating from Rufus King High School in 1971.

Alvin accepted Christ at an early age, and was baptized at Mount Zion Missionary Baptist Church. He participated in many activities such as Sunday School, Baptist Training Union, youth groups, and The Boy Scouts of America.

Alvin was an avid sports fan. As a child his most prized possessions were his Milwaukee Braves Baseball suit, cap, glove, ball, and bat. His father took him to numerous baseball games where he wore his baseball suit with pride. Alvin excelled in sports at Rufus King, where he set a record in football for the most sacks in one game. He earned his athletic letter and numerous chevrons while playing different sports.

Alvin was a faithful employee of The Milwaukee Envelope Company until a physical disability forced him to retire. Alvin loved to stay in contact with his numerous friends. He especially enjoyed socializing with those from the neighborhood. He was seen all over town in his motorized chair. "His chair became his Cadillac!" He was a stylish dresser. Family was very important to Alvin; he attended all gatherings and reunions.

He had many stories to tell and was often the life of the party.

Alvin leaves to cherish his memory: five sisters: Juanita Williams, Shirley Manns, Carolyn Mcintosh, Dorothy Sue Malone, of Milwaukee, WI; and Linda Tate of Houston, TX; one brother: Richard Tate Sr., Milwaukee, WI. Brothers - in- law: Alfred Davis, Franklin Mcintosh, and Michael Malone of Milwaukee, WI; and many nieces, nephews, cousins, and close school and neighborhood friends.
