WHAT WE REMEMBER MOST ABOUT ANDRE

To know Andre was to love him. He had a smile and laugh that was truly infectious. His stress-free, laid-back approach to life was to be admired. Given the nickname "lazy cat" by his late grandmother, Ella Mae Mitchell, Andre moved at his own pace. If you had the pleasure of meeting Andre, you were blessed. Imagine someone that could make you angry and laugh at the same time. Andre had friends from the midwest to the west coast. He loved to travel, eat good food, attend sporting events, and challenge anyone to a game of pool. Andre represented his hometown teams in style (Milwaukee Brewers and Milwaukee Bucks), often wearing the teams gear displaying his chic sporty fashion sense. Known by his friends as "Dre Luv", we could all learn from his fun-loving spirit.

On September 20, 2023, at 3:22 p.m., Andre Maurice Mitchell departed this life. He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Henry Mitchell Sr. and Ella Mae Mitchell, and his aunt, Pastor Barbara Louise Mitchell.

Andre leaves behind to cherish his memory: mother, Mary L. Mitchell of Milwaukee, WI; father, Johnny Rawls of Purvis, MS; daughters, Alexandria Jones, Ashala Trice, Kayla Wilson, Kayli Wilson, Adrianna Winston, and Aniya Winston, all of Milwaukee, WI; sons, Adonnis McMurtry of Stockton, CA and Amere Mitchell and Amarion Trice, both of Milwaukee, WI; brother, Johnny Rawls Jr. of Milwaukee, WI; Godbrothers, Antwione Powell, Clayvon Powell, and Darell Powell, all of Milwaukee, WI; sisters, Denise S.
