“ James Patterson jr and Marzie sending out sincere condolences. We are Deeply sorry for the late Condolence message to the family , however James and I was not aware of his death until James notice on Facebook not so long ago. .

James and I are deeply saddened about your lost

May our precious Father God comfort the family heart as needed during this challenging time

. James and I pray for God to continue to guide the family life to bring them joy - peace and to allow Gods will to be done along with giving the family Continous strength as needed

We will always keep the family in our prayers

Life Situation does get better(referring to the pain we at times experience when we lost someone we love dearly) However a person will never forget the lost or the love they share ,but cherish the wonderful memories . R. I. P.

Again sorry for the late entry we was not aware of his death until now 😭😞😞
