

Mrs. Ann Louise Rose

July 1, 1933 - November 18, 2016

ANN LOUISE ROSE was born on July 1, 1933, to the union of Fletcher and Gladys White, in Cherokee, Kansas. Ann received her formal education at Douglas Elementary and Pittsburg High School, in Pittsburg, Kansas. She furthered her education at Northwest Institute of Medical Technology in Minneapolis, Minnesota and Florida A&M University in Tallahassee, Florida, where she received her Bachelor of Science. In 1972, Ann continued to pursue her educational endeavors at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee. Ann accepted Christ as her Savior in Pittsburg, Kansas, at the age of seven and was united with the Hebron Missionary Baptist Church, where she served as a church and choir member. Ann Rose White was united in holy matrimony with Harold Milton Rose, on December 23, 1955, in Tallahassee, Florida. Their union was blessed with one child, Gregory. Ann was employed at Mt. Sinai Medical Center, as a medical laboratory technician, for over twenty-seven years. In her leisure, Ann enjoyed traveling and the joy of the holiday seasons. She, also, liked to collect antiques and classical artwork. Upon moving to Milwaukee, WI, Ann became a member of the St. Marks African Methodist Episcopal Church. She, later, joined Eastbrook Church. On Friday, November 18, 2016, Ann Louise Rose departed this life. She was preceded in death by her husband, Harold Milton Rose. They were married sixty years. She leaves to cherish her memory her: son, Gregory Allen Rose of Milwaukee, WI; granddaughter, Latisa Joy Dixon; sister-in-law, Stephanie White of Kansas City, Missouri; nephew, Craig White of Kansas City, Missouri; nieces, Robin

Bailey of Elk Grove, California and Joan Bombardier of Paducah, Kentucky; and a host of other relatives and friends.
