

Mrs. Annette Marie Sallis

July 7, 1936 - October 31, 2017

Annette M. Sallis was born on July 7, 1936 to the union of Edgar and Claudia Benson (Hayes) in Arlington, Tennessee. Annette received her formal education in the Milwaukee Public School System and graduated from Lincoln High School.

Annette M. Benson was united in holy matrimony with James Sallis on June 29, 1957 in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Their union was blessed with four children.

She was employed by J.e. Penny and Milwaukee County, as a data processor for a combined thirty years - until her retirement. In her leisure, she enjoyed cooking, traveling and spending holidays with family and friends. Her sharp tongue made her a force to be reckoned with! Annette had a tenacity that was unmatched. She was a member of The Sophisticated Few, The Fabulous 50's and The Birthday Club.

God allowed Annette M. Sallis to transition on her son Rufus's birthday, October 31 of 2017. She was preceded in death by parents: Edgar and Claudia Benson; husband, James Sallis; sons: Ivan and Rufus Sallis; and sister, Carrie Oldham.

She leaves to cherish her memory: daughter, Carlotta Bond; son, Jason

(Tiffany) Sallis; grandchildren: Alando & Alexis Bond, Tina Marie & Shavonta Tharp, Jawan, Trinity and Serenity Sallis; eight great-grandchildren; dedicated and caring niece, Pamela "Lucy" Martin and her children: Jaqueline, Eshe & Kenny, as well as a host of relatives and friends.
