

Mrs. Annie Bell Cooley

August 10, 1910 - May 16, 2013

Annie B. Cooley was born on August 10, 1910 in Lake Providence, Arkansas to Charles Joseph and Emma Williams Robinson. She departed this life on Thursday, May 16, 2013.

Annie B. Cooley, who was affectionately called (Momma Annie), completed her formal education in Helena, Arkansas and moved to Milwaukee, Wisconsin at the age of 19.

Momma Annie confessed her faith in Christ at an early age and later joined Christ Presbyterian Church in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Momma Annie loved to go fishing and traveling with- her family. She was very proud of her opportunity to vote for President Obama and received a letter of recognition from President Obama for her 100th Birthday.

She leaves to cherish her memory: One Daughter Perthina Spears, Five Grandchildren; Karen Spears of Milwaukee, Brian Sr. (Shelly) Spears of Carthage, MS, Kenneth Spears Sr. of Atlanta, GA, Terry Sr. (Gwen) Spears of Milwaukee, and Tyson Sr. (Edna) Spears of Oak Creek. Twenty-one Great grandchildren and a host of great great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives and many friends.

Momma Annie was preceded in death by her parents; husband George Cooley, twelve siblings, son-in law Carl K. Spears Jr. and other family members.

Cemetery Details

Graceland Cemetery

6401 N. 43rd St.
Milwaukee, WI

Previous Events

Visitation

MAY 24. 10:00 AM - 11:00 AM (CT)

Christ Presbyterain Church
1930 W. Walnut Street
Milwaukee, WI

Service

MAY 24. 11:00 AM (CT)

Christ Presbyterain Church
1930 W. Walnut Street
Milwaukee, WI