

Mr. Anthony Allan Johnson

September 15, 1981 - April 11, 2016

Anthony Allan Johnson was born in Milwaukee on September 15, 1981 to Allan Henry Johnson of blessed memory and Monica Thorn. He was the youngest of two sisters and a brother from his dad's side. As a child, Tony was very curious and loved to learn new things. He was very ambitious and energetic. Some of his favorite memories included spending time with his cousins, especially Little Jan doing the Bojangles and eating fries from Uncle French Fry (Uncle McKinley). Tony enjoyed astronomy; during his father's last years alive, they enjoyed exchanging the "Astronomy picture of the Day" from the NASA website.

He received his education through the Milwaukee Public School system and went on to pursue his dream of remodeling and painting homes. Tony loved to take things apart and was especially good at building or putting things together. He had gifted hands and was very handy; there is nothing he could not build and he was a very hard worker. His love for his profession took him to many outskirts of Wisconsin and Illinois to complete projects. He enjoyed the warm weather and his favorite city was Los Angeles. In his leisure, he enjoyed spending time with his family, muscle cars, especially Dodge Ram 1500, and working with his hands. He was so full of life and was very helpful to everyone. His smile would light up the room and his friendly personality brought many people together.

One thing Tony loved more than anything was his Savior Jesus

Christ. At a very young age, he was introduced to Christ and the love for the church through the teachings of his Grandmother, Willie Mae Thorn of blessed memory. One of his fondest memories of her is how she always told him to never stop praying. He got a deeper understanding of his Savior Jesus Christ and service to God and mankind at Victory Outreach, under the leadership of Pastor Charlie Reyna. While there, he made life-long relationships with many brothers in the church.

Cemetery Details

Lincoln Memorial Park

6400 W. Burleigh Street
Milwaukee, WI

Previous Events

Visitation

APR 23. 10:00 AM - 11:00 AM (CT)

Mt Zion Healing Temple
4300 N. Green Bay Ave
Milwaukee, WI

Service

APR 23. 11:00 AM (CT)

Mt Zion Healing Temple
4300 N. Green Bay Ave
Milwaukee, WI

Tribute Wall

PB

“ What I remember MOST ABOUT ANTHONY ALLEN JOHNSON, that He was a Man that love the Lord and his FAMILY, he was a giving man a HARD working man, a friend to many , He stop by my home one weekend to see his oldest son, and when he left to run to store he happened to see some with a malfunctioning vehicle and he did what ANTHONY ALWAYS dose he stopped TO help, I TRULY will miss this particular Man. ANTHONY ALLEN JOHNSON. ,, PRECIOUS BADRAN Sincer Hannah Terrell. Johnson ANTHONY ALLEN JOHNSON Jr.

PRECIOUS BADRAN - April 23, 2016 at 07:56 AM

NA

“ Rest in perfect peace, our brother. Only the good Lord knows the reason for this sudden, premature departure from your loved ones. Sonia, please find strength in our Maker for He alone will be your fortress in this time and all the days ahead without Tony.. He is the husbnd of the widow and the Father of the fatherless.. be still my dear for He comforts you, my lil "boyfriend" Allan and my baby Sarah..it is well, my sister

Naa - April 18, 2016 at 06:56 PM

“ My love, rest in the arms of our Father. I hate that we had to be separated. I love you so much. May the peace of God that surpasses all understanding continue to keep you until we meet again. Our kids and I love you so much. Rest well.

Akua Ayisi - April 16, 2016 at 10:20 PM