“ *My dearest Kelly,
April will be long remembered in the hearts of those who knew her, in the hearts of those many lives that she touched as a pilgrim passing through this world.*

Psalm 139:16b ~ all the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be.

He holds us all in his hand. Ever and always.

“ I only just met April but was looking forward to connecting more with her. She was becoming active in the Emerging Leaders of Portage County and her enthusiasm will be missed. Our hearts go out to all who had the pleasure of seeing that enthusiasm and caring from April.##imported-begin##Trina Laube##imported-end##

“ Hello everyone, I am Andre Stewart jr. April's younger brother and the pest that always loved, and joked with her as kids lol. My sister was our sun always shining so bright and making us feel good to wake up to see a new day wit her. At 25 years old she accomplished so much in her life. She always put her friends first to make sure everyone was ok. I remember my las time seeing my sister, I hugged her tight and gave her a kiss on the cheek and told her i love you . I remember she always ask me why you hug me and kiss me like that. I would always tell her, sis because I never know when I will see you again. lol memeoires. The family and I are doing alot better we are holding up, and still and forever missing my sister. We all would like to thank all of you for your help, and support, We really really thank you. To her close friends thank you for keeping my sister being there for her in her last days. Thank all yall, and everybody god bless, sincerely Fikes, Stewart, Jackson, and Thompson family ##imported-begin##Andre Stewart jr.##imported-end##

“ Oh April...why?? You were such a beautiful woman with so much to give to the world. I remember how stunning you looked when you returned from that summer in Mexico with your hair braided so beautifully. I wish I had known you were feeling so badly...##imported-begin##Laurie Graboski Bauer##imported-end##

“ There were a group of us who could lose ourselves on the dance floor. The world's problems just faded away as we would bust that sway, hit those turns, and maybe try a dip. Wish we could have had one more dance, but will always enjoy the thoughts and memories of all those previous ones. It's hard to say goodbye so I am going to say, see you later. Big hug :##imported-begin##David Davila##imported-end##

“ She turned to her friends for help and we tried. I was there for you since the start of all of this and it kills me that I've failed as your friend. I love you very much and I wish you'd turned to me when these thoughts came up again. Just spoke with you 2weeks ago about xmas plans....and was getting you Fall Out New Vegas for your gift, I still have your jacket you left at my house from when we were laughing it up watching our comedy and keeping our cats from killing each other. I'm torn inside and I wish everyone here were in your life a lot more to show u the love you deserved and needed to get through your dark time. I'll always think of you but while your body is gone I know your spirit is still here looking out for me and those who you hold close to your heart.

Hope you're in a better place and smiling down on us all with April smile.

Much love yo boy

“ *Words can't begin to express my heartfelt sympathy to the family. I hope and pray that you find comfort from each other to get through this, and draw closer as April would have wanted you to. Darnell, you are more than a brother-in-law, you are my brother, and I love you always. Kelly, I never met you, but please stay strong, and keep your memories of April alive. May she rest in PEACE!!!##imported-

“ My precious angel girl. You were like a sister to me. Always making me laugh and encouraging me through faith. I will miss our talks on theology, spirituality, and of course, men! I still can't dance - but I will never forget the salsa and hip-hop lessons we had together. Your beauty and personality engaged everyone around you. Know that you are loved, missed and honored.

-Your sister in Christ,
