

Avery Lee Goodrich, Sr.

September 30, 1928 - April 28, 2012

Avery was born September 30, 1928 in Jackson, Tennessee, the ninth child in the union of Joseph and Ovallie Goodrich. Christ guided his steps from a very early age. He was bapttzed at St. Paul C.M.E. Church in Jackson, Tennessee.

Avery's parents made sur

Tribute Wall

“ I remember Mr. Goodrich well from Roosevelt Jr High School. He was the nicest teacher ever. I am 62 years old and of all the teachers I've forgotten Mr. Goodrich was not one of them. He was a wonderful man. We need more men teachers like him. I'm very sorry for our loss.##imported-begin##Marsha Connor Booker##imported-end##

May 14, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ Mr. Goodrich was a gentle giant. A giant for education with a gentle soul. We loved to talk polictics when he would visit Maryland. It was like our own little conversation in our own little world. He will be missed but lives on through his children, grandchildren, family members and friends. I certainly have memories that will last for my lifetime. Henry, Jordan and I miss you. ##imported-begin##Carol Peterson##imported-end##

May 08, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ Worked under Mr. Goodrich at Audubon during the mid eighties. Will celebrate the Divine Liturgy for him in the near future and will send the notice. Please contact me at the above email as to where to send it. My deepest condolences.##imported-begin##Most Rev Leland Lannoye##imported-end##

May 02, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ Avery was one of my Alpha Brothers who welcomed me to Milwaukee when I moved here from Philadelphia. He made my move smooth especially since I have few relatives living in Milwaukee. My prayers and condolences go out to the family. Know that Our Lord has gone ahead to prepare a place for us and now he can take his place by his side.##imported-begin##Bro. Earl D Smith Jr##imported-end##

May 02, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ Avery Jr. and the entire family. Please accept our heartfelt sympathy at this time and know that our prayers and hope for peace and understanding will be on-going. We retain the warmest memories of Dad and Mom. Both having been such faithful servants. God be with you. Dr. P and Pat##imported-begin##Dr. Roland Pattillo##imported-end##

May 01, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ Rest Well Brother Goodrich! You will truly be missed my dear brother.##imported-begin##Al Smith##imported-end##

April 30, 2012 at 12:00 AM