“ Barbara and I were next door neighbors for almost 20 years, we grew to be close confidants and we shared gardening tips, recipes, many laughs and many words of encouragement on both our sides of the fence, in each other's homes, on the porch and doorsteps throughout the years. I missed her so when she moved and still miss her presence next door. She was a inspiration and a big sister many times to me. I love her and always will. To each of her children I know personally how much you all were her joy and that she was always grateful, happy, and thankful for you all of you her Blessings, and Her grandchildren even more! Please know I and Hubert sincerely pray That God will comfort your hearts, meet every need and keep you all close to one another as your Mother would pray. Much love and sincere condolences.
