

Mrs. Barbara Ann Magee

August 1, 1947 - December 30, 2015

Barbara A. Magee was born on August 1, 1947 to Shelby Lee McLaurin II and Vashti Baxter McLaurin in Brandon, Mississippi. She was the youngest of three children.

Barbara professed her faith in Christ at an early age and joined Rock Star Missionary Baptist Church in Brandon, Mississippi. This is where her lifelong ministry of helping others began. She had a heart of gold and always tried to help others. She later became a faithful member of St. Luke Missionary Baptist Church in Rockford, Illinois for many years.

She was joined in holy matrimony to Mr. Jimmy C. Magee. To this union three children were born, Eric F. McLaurin, Credell M. Magee and Jamie G. Magee, all of Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Barbara A. Magee transitioned from this life to her new life on December 30, 2015 in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Her husband, Jimmy Magee; mother and father, Vashti Baxter McLaurin and Shelby Lee McLaurin II; and brother, Shelby McLaurin III preceded her in death.

Barbara leaves to cherish many memories: three children, one loving sister, Edna (John) McDonald of Brandon, Mississippi; six grandchildren, Erica Ford of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, C'Are'e Magee of Chicago, Illinois, Charita

Ford, Shelby Magee, [amari Magee and Cierra Magee; five great grandchildren, Diamond Ford, Eric Ford and Omari Ford, all of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Myeisha Barnett and Romello Barnett of Rockford, Illinois; a special nephew, John (Stephanie) McDonald, Jr. of Conyers, Georgia; special niece, Gia Allen of Brandon, Mississippi; and a host of other nieces, nephews, friends and loved ones that were close to her heart.
