“ I remember Bobby laughing! Most of the time at and with my mother. She would bring her children, her sister's children, her children's children to church when they were young and we enjoyed this family's contribution to the worship and spiritual experience so very much. I miss you Bobby and sorry that after Mom passed, we didn't get together to share our love of her life as well as our own. I am comforted that now you are together - laughing in God's mansion! I wonder if they have garage sales in heaven?! Love you, Sister Bobby.

So many years ago we worked side by side. I am thankful for that. We always remember each other with our Christmas card exchange, I will miss that. There are no words to really say what I feel about this loss. I am sure your journey to the heavens has been a serene one for you. Now you have the ability to look over all of your family and friends, and we have the ability to look to you as an angel.

Warmly, Paula Rein
