“ To Bonnie's children, Sonja and Richard, and her dear grandchildren who she loved dearly. I met your mom when she was 21 and I was 26, and she was a good, dear friend all these years. I am terribly sorry she died, and I hope you can hope in the resurrection as she did. She was a truly beautiful person, loving and inoffensive all the years I knew her. We sat next to each other in DeKalb during the last district, and as usual she was wonderful to be around. I was totally shocked when I heard of her sudden death, and my prayers are with you. She is already missed so much by so many, in addition to her dear family. She was loved by many. I couldn't attend her viewing because I am on crutches at this time due to medical problems, but you are all in my heart, and so is she. She left you a legacy of love. She truly dearly loved you all. It was a special blessing to have known her, and I will never forget her.##imported-begin##Lucetta White##imported-end##
