“ To the Adams family I love you and adore the closeness and fun that you all share keep those memories close to your heart when you feel down. Auntie Tammy there are no words that can comfort at this time because no one feels the hurt that you feel however, GOD will hold you and hug and love you through it all. I love you and I know how strong you are Ms.Brenda will always be with you always. I know that she was your friend, mother, and twin but she is proud of you and she will always love you always and she will miss you also you shall be with her again. Lots of love and blessings to you and the entire family.##imported-begin##Lekonja Crook Harrington##imported-end##
