Bridgett Lenora Nance was born April 29th, 1967 to Thelma Nance and Bill Hutchins. She went to grade school, middle school and high school in Milwaukee WI. She graduated from South Division High School in 1985. She was always well like and admired by many of her classmates.

Bridgett gave birth to her one and only precious daughter Kamarra on February 9, 1987. Her daughter meant the world to her! Bridgett and Kamarra was always together, and she did everything humanly possible to ensure her daughter met her goals in life and was able to thrive independently. Bridgett didn't know it at the time but in high school Jerome Larkins had a crush on her. Years later their paths would cross again, and they married on November 4th , 2015, until Jerome's passing on April 2nd of 2020.

Bridgett worked at Aldi's Warehouse as an order selector from 1998 to October of 2020. There she met amazing lifelong friends who always supported her and her daughters milestones.

Bridgett was not only a very hard worker, but she also took out the time to give

many of her co-

worker good sound advice. She was known as one of the most gracious people at work.

Bridgett loved music She always had enough CD's tapes and records to fill up an entire room.

was shop and get dress. She loved new cars and looked forward to going to car shows. She collected fragrances the way she collected her music. She loved paper and pens and stationery overall. Her adored dogs Pepper and Conrad will miss her dearly. She cared for many pets thanks to her animal loving daughter.

Bridgett was known for lessening the load off people's shoulders and always trying to unburden her loved ones. She was a giver and healer no matter her own circumstances. She tried to be there for everyone no matter the cost.

Bridgett left Milwaukee and embarked on anew journey by relocating to Conyers, GA with her daughter, mother and niece Naomi Nance. She was excited about this new chapter in her life and told everyone who would listen about the new house her and her daughter Kamarra purchased. She officially became the caregiver for her dear mother and for the 3 years, despite the difficulties she never complained.
