

Ms. Brinda Allen

November 17, 1962 - May 4, 2025

Brinda Fay Allen was born alongside her twin sister Linda on November 17, 1962 to their beautiful mother Laura Allen Newton in Fayette, Mississippi. Brinda graduated from Washington High School class of 1981. For the majority of her career, later in life, she worked in the health care field working with the elderly until she retired early.

Brinda accepted Christ as a youth back home in Fayette, Mississippi where she was baptized and continued to be a believer into her adult life. Although not married, Brinda was with her partner Henry Moore for over 20 years and from this union they have two children. Their son, Isaiah Moore-Allen who unfortunately did not survive birth, and their daughter Anika Moore (Prince).

Brinda enjoyed a good game of tunk or spades where she did her best trash talking. Brinda was one of the biggest fans of wrestling and if you called while it was on, you knew she heard nothing you said! Also, anyone that learned to drive under Brinda, all have a lead foot.

Brinda Allen departed this life on Sunday, May 4, 2025. She was preceded in life by her son, Isaiah Moore Allen; mother, Laura Allen Newton; brothers, Elbert, Jessie and Charles Allen; sisters, Roberta Allen Wilson, Elberta Allen, and Charlene Allen; aunts, Georgia Cummings of Baton Rouge, LA and Cora Lee

Vanederson of Flint, Michigan; uncles, Charles K. Allen of Flint, MI. Julius Allen and Amos Green of Fayette, MS.
