“ Bryan and I meet while he was in Minnesota we spent 7 years together he was my best friend my lover and my life partner, we lost touch in this last year but the last time I seen you at the end of June I couldn't imagine losing you again being in your arms it was like being home again that peaceful unexplained touch of your presence crashing in your arms that passion of love strong hugs your essence your smell the softness of your kisses the moments in love with you I didn't ever wanna lose this day I'm empty inside knowing that I will never see you again I love you more than words can ever say be sure you give your mom a big hug for me and tell her how much I love her I'll miss you the pain I feel for you right now it's hard the emptiness in my heart is hard to bear but let me share this terrible time and let everybody know just how much you meant to me you were my life my friend my lover my partner I'll love you forever I'll just have to learn to live with this pain this emptiness I feel watch over me watch over your boys just know that I love you I will always love you you were a good partner Jeana
