“ I'm without words and will miss Byron. Our family has loss so many loved ones and this one really took us by surprise. The beauty in this, is that he is no longer here in pain and can reunite with Aunty Charlene (his Mom), Uncle Bobby (his father), our uncles, grandparents and countless other family members. I pray my cousins are surrounded by angels of comfort.

Byron was one of few people who stood up for me when I was in HS and I had a real life stalker for months. He told me not to worry and he slept over at my house. That night the guy was breaking into my bedroom and Byron beat him up...then held him until the police arrived. The weirdo guy told police he just wanted to give me a note...Byron was the hero that day and I'll always appreciate him for believing me, doing something about it and not being afraid. Im glad we discussed this again as adults and I was able to share my gratitude with him again.

I love you Byron and our many childhood memories will always be some of my favorite moments.
