

Mr. Charles C. Jones

February 5, 1946 - May 1, 2022

Charles C. Jones was born on February 5, 1946, to Pauline (Jones) Beard and Clifford Adams in Ripley, Mississippi. Charles received his formal education at West Division High School in the city of Milwaukee.

He furthered his education at Milwaukee Area Technical College.

Charles accepted Christ as his Savior at age ten and was united with Pilgrim Rest Baptist Church where he served as a faithful member under the leadership of Reverend C. V. Harrington.

In June 1969, Charles enlisted into the United States National Guard.

He was employed at J. W. Speaker for over twenty years as an Electrical Technician. He also worked at Utility Products for over fifteen years.

In his leisure, he enjoyed playing as the lead guitarist with a band called The Sonic Sounds with his cousin, Roy Maxwell who was more like a brother. He also enjoyed exercising, eating healthy, and he had an overwhelming love for all sports. We know you are enjoying being back with your favorite cousin, Roy and best friend, Wayne Soward.

Charles Clifford Jones departed this life on May 1, 2022. He was preceded in death by his parents, Pauline Beard and Clifford Adams.

He leaves to cherish his memory: sisters, Anno R. Garrett of Milwaukee and Daphene Adams of Ripley; brothers, Tony (Suzanne) Adams of Harriman, Tennessee, Clem Adams of Ripley, and Adrian Adams of El Mirage, AZ; a very special niece, Shivonni (Rickey) Nelson of Brown Deer, Wisconsin; two wonderful nieces, Shilaine Nelson of Brown Deer, and Rikki Nelson of Milwaukee; and a host of other family and friends.
