

Ms. Chloe R. Williams

December 19, 1985 - October 28, 2020

Chloe Robiaryn Williams was born to Robert and Karen Cullledge Williams in Milwaukee, WI, their youngest child and only daughter. She grew up in a loving home supported by her parents and brothers, Johnnie (Cullee) and Robert Chaz, and her Aunt Kathy, always close by. She attended Harambee Community School and Milwaukee Public Schools graduating from Solomon Juneau High School in 2005. She also studied at Milwaukee Area Technical College and Gateway Technical College.

Chloe was a member of Greater Galilee Missionary Baptist Church, baptized in her early teens. Chloe believed in God. Her warm, cheerful personality made her a natural for customer service. She worked in several retail positions. Recently she was recognized for five years of service at her place of employment, Marshalls in Mequon. She thoroughly enjoyed assisting customers and working with her co-workers. She held aspirations of a career as a fashion stylist.

Chloe loved hours of talking and laughing with friends, creating fun fashion outfits, organizing or NOT organizing her collections of everything feminine, snacking while watching favorite shows, traveling to Las Vegas, Atlanta, Florida, St. Louis, and Washington D.C. and other places AND entertaining herself with her own off-key singing. She wrote with such passion, filling journals, writing lots of song lyrics and many short stories. She gave genuine greetings, big smiles, and even hugs to practically everyone, which clearly reflected her heart. At a recent family reunion, she was a light of joy to all. Within a few hours before her passing, Chloe had just submitted her ballot in the 2020 Elections.

Chloe follows to Heaven: Her father, Robert Lea Williams (1950 - 2011), who always called her. .. "Sugar Lump". Also, grandparents, Deacon' Johnnie and Annie Williams, and Lina Culledge and Elbert Moss.

Chloe's family is mother, Karen; brothers, Cullee (Sabina), and Chaz (Orielen), aunts, Kathy Culledge, JoAnne Williams Fleming, Glenda Mitchell, Patricia (John) Dixon; uncles, Robert Wayne (Patsy) Williams, Kenneth Williams, and Clarence Ray Williams (Betty Golden); nephews, Joaquin, Luisi, and Jaxon Williams; cousins, Tammy Jackson (Johnnie), Darien Mitchell, Albertina Davenport, Teresa Coleman, and The Flemings: Stuart Ray, Brandy, Robert, Mandy, and Sean(Orlando Clarke); god-mother, Catherine Miles; and god-sisters, Shannon (Julio) Martinez, and Andrea (Eric) Wheeler. Chloe embraced her international families: The Eghans of Ghana, West Africa and The Lopez-Avons of Havana City, Cuba. Many more dear relatives, friends, co-workers, family friends, church members, and classmates will remember Chloe.

Our family will always thank God for His Mighty Blessing that we called Chloe. We love her in and out and beyond time.
