

Mr. Christopher Curtis Henning

July 26, 1970 - December 12, 2014

Christopher Curtis Henning "Chris" aka "Fatt Dogg" was born on July 26, 1970 in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He was the tenth child of twelve children born to Colonial and Pearline Henning.

Chris accepted Christ at an early age at New Covenant Baptist Church under the leadership of Dr. F. L. Crouther. He was active in Sunday School, Boy Scouts, Petite Choir and the Basketball Team. He was educated in the Milwaukee Public School System and graduated from Hamilton High School in 1989. For several years, Chris owned and operated "Double C's" Hand Car Wash where he specialized in detailing cars. He was employed by Waste Management until his health failed.

Chris was united in holy matrimony to Tina Walton on November 16, 2007. This union was also blessed to be a family that included three beautiful children.

Chris was always the life of the party, affectionately known as "Fatt Dogg". He was a special uncle to his nieces and nephews, as well as being that special baby brother to his siblings. In addition to spending time with his family, Chris enjoyed fishing, hunting, and motorcycle riding. He was passionate with cars and loved driving all over the country.

He was known for his many different phrases and analogies when reenacting the things that had taken place during the family gatherings. Chris was blessed with the "Henning Touch" and his famous "Tasters" when it came to barbequing. The family barbeques will no longer be the same without his presence at the grill.

Chris was preceded in death by his father: Colonial Henning; Brother: Contorder Henning; Grandparents: Curtis and Liza Henning and Joe Patrick and Tiller Smith.

By the will of our blessed Savior, Chris entered into eternal rest on December 12, 2014. r'
