April 8, 1969 - December 27, 2014

Clarence Wade Quincy Jr. was born on April 8, 1969 to the union of Clarence Wade Quincy Sr. and Mary Frances Quincy. His parents provided him with the guidance to handle life's challenges.

Clarence who was affectionately called "Tweet" accepted Christ at an early age and received his foundational training at North Minister Presbyterian Church.

Tweet received his formal education in the Milwaukee Public School System, graduating from Bayview High School. He was very active and part of the football team. He continued his education at North Dakota State University.

As a young man Clarence served in the United States Navy. After returning home he worked as a CNA for Marian Franciscan, Assistant Manager of McDonalds, North Division Rehab, and Preferred Staffing and was a mail carrier for the united States Post Office.

Tweet was a retired member of the Flying Eagles Motor Cycle Club and served as the vice president of the second page. In his leisure he enjoyed playing Dominoes, spades, playing pool and dancing. Tweet, when he got together with his family and friends, you could expect a performance; he wore the life of a standing comedian well. He loved spending quality time with his family and adored his children.

One's life is best defined by the relationships developed along the way, his friends were many, and he will be truly missed by all whose lives he touched. on December 27, 2014 God in His infinite wisdom transitioned Clarence from his earthly home to his heavenly home.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories; his loving mother, Mary Andrallanno; father, Clarence Quincy Sr., beloved children, Ryan Coleman, Chauncey Morgan, Emani Quincy and Brandy Morgan; brothers, Navarro Nelson, Tracy Fizer, Dajuan Kelly (Cecelia) Brookshire; sisters, Zinna (Tyrone) and Angela Quincy; ten nieces; nine nephews; thirteen great nieces; twelve great nephews and a host of family and friends.
