“ I met Ms. Claudette as a young girl, being that I grew up with her granddaughters, Jennifer and Angela. She was a beautiful person and a wonderful grandmother. I have many memories that we both maybe shared like when we went to this old time movie theater that only cost 25 cent! We always had pizza when we were at her house, Domino's or Lil' Ceasers.... Oh and on one snowy night we all got stuck on some road and had to wait for AAA, but it was cool. We love you Ms. Claudette and may you rest in peace now with your Lord. Blessings to the Williams' family! - Aja Swope & Family##imported-begin##Aja Swope##imported-end##

“ Randy and Teddy,

I know that my family has sent our condolense but I need to write this and I hope it brings you both some measure of comfort. I want to remind you of how you three have affected me personally.

I could tell your mother anything about how I was feeling and she would keep my secrets. As a confused adolescent and an even more confused teenager I needed Claudette in my life. After talking with my brother Thurman I realized that my whole family need the Williams family. When the Williams' family moved into the neighborhood they moved into our hearts. Claudette was the one single individual who was appreciated by my entire family. I am sorry to say I can not call to mind anyone else who held that distinction. I feel a great loss in my life.

Eventho your mother and I loss contact with each other the years the world feels different to me now that I know Claudette has gone home. I know that none of us are going to getting off of this planet alive, I also know that some of the sweetness, kindness and compassion that I carry around with me comes from knowing your mother. She sffected me in a positive way everytime I was in her presence.

Randy, I remember the first time that you took apart the alarm clock and told me that you could put it back together again. You never knew how much I was hoping that you could reassemble that clock. I knew that if I had tried to take apart any kind of gadget or appliance at my house that I would have had to hide the evidence. I was so afraid that Claudette would tell my parents what you had done while I was responsible for you and Teddy. When Claudette returned from the movies I told her what went on . I was foolish to be afraid because she simply said that it was alright. She said that was how you learned. That was a new exprience for me. Claudette made the situation alright because she was alright with you learning by doing

Teddy, I remember how Claudette was always so concerned about you and the application of Caramex on your chin. Your skin would dry out because you would lick your bottom lip when you were excited or happy or out of habit. She was protective of her boys that way. I wonder how much our parents do for us that we never realize.

Hillary Clinton quoted an African proverb that says "It takes a village to raise a child." Claudette was a elder in our village and I will always love her for that. And for the many special talks and advise she gave to me . The thing I find so extraordinary is that she never said one thing bad about my family and I know that my family like all families is far from perfect.. Claudette showed me how a good family functioned and she did it without a husband.

The fact that you two became the men that you are does not amaze me. I hear good things about you from my family members. I hope sometime in the future the three of us can see each other again. I promise that if we meet at my house I will not put mustard in the "tuna salad." Claudette shared her secret for making tuna salad with me when you guys became tired my receipe. It is not the the French's Mustard. that gives the color to the salad its the eggs.

Be well and do not eat any yellow tuna salad and know that I hold your family in my heart.
