

Ms. Clifford Renee Lemons

August 3, 1962 - March 5, 2015

CLIFFORD "RENEE" LEMONS was born August 3, 1962 in Chicago, IL., to the late Ruth Lemons and Rufus Lemons.

She confessed in Christ at an early age and received her education through Milwaukee Public Schools.

Best known as "Renee", she was outgoing, very funny and outspoken. She was full of laughter and was loved by a multitude of family and friends. Renee was a model sister and mother, who was looked up to by all her nieces and nephews, even though she did not birth any of them.

In leisure, Renee loved doing hair, cooking, and having family and friends over.

She was a member of the "Thundercats" social club and was also a sharp and vivid Pool

Player for the Mid West Ladies Pool league and was full of life.

On Thursday March 5,2015, CLIFFORD "RENEE" LEMONS. silently departed this life. She was preceded in death by her parents Ruth and Rufus Lemons, her brothers

Robert and Larry Lemons and her sister, Almetta Pruitt. She leaves to cherish her memories seven sisters: Jacqueline Miller, Donna Willis and Cynthia (Charles) Evans, all of Pine Bluff, AR., Monica (Dwight) Wheeler, Julie Terry, Diane Terry and Phillis Terry, all ~ of Milwaukee, WI. Five brothers: Ronald (Annette) Lemons, Leo, Glenn and Cedric

Lemons, all of Milwaukee, WI. and Jeffery Lemons of Pine Bluff, AR. She also leaves her grandmother, Augusta Willis of Pine Bluff, AR., one aunt, Rosalind Tisdale and one uncle, Leo Pruitt, both of Milwaukee, WI., a special brother-in-law: James Green, a significant other: Thomas Walker, twelve nieces, twelve nephews and a host of loving family and friends.
