

Mr. Clyde Edward Broughton

October 10, 1941 - November 28, 2014

Clyde Edward Broughton was born on October 10, 1941 to the union of Ebbie and Dorothy Broughton in New Edinburg, Arkansas. He received his formal education at Lincoln High School in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Clyde accepted Christ at a young age and was united with the New Edinburg Church Of God In Christ. He was employed by the Local Laborers Union 113 as a Construction Worker. In his leisure he enjoyed fishing, cars, music and watching western movies.

Clyde Edward Broughton departed this life on November 28, 2014. He was preceded in death by his parents, Ebbie and Dorothy Broughton; aunt, Annie Burger; nephew, Kenneth Taylor; and niece, Scheryl Greer.

He leaves to cherish his memory: two sisters, Barbara (Otis) Greer of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and Marnice Lee of Altadena, California; one son, Dexter Broughton; six grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and dear friends.
