

Mr. Cornell Kimble

September 28, 1941 - May 16, 2023

Cornell Kimble was born on September 28, 1941, to Charlie and Ann Henderson in Tippo, Mississippi, and reared by grandfather, Jeff Drain. He received his formal education within the Mississippi Public School System. Cornell did not regularly attend church, but he did believe in God and "God's Plan" for himself. On December 22, 1979, Cornell was united in Holy Matrimony to Mina Sherard. The two did not have birth children, but shared over three decades of loving experiences, opportunities, and memories together.

Cornell was employed at Crucible Steel, American Motors, and most recently until his retirement, New Beginnings Group Home where he served youth through mentorship and supervision for over 20 years. Cornell treated the youth as if they were his own, with dignity, respect, and most importantly, shared stories with life lessons! He truly enjoyed this work!

Cornell lived a long and adventurous life. In his leisure time he loved to fish, hunt, cook, tell good ole' Mississippi stories, and just chill out in the yard.

"Con" had a special story for every situation! In addition, he loved giving advice and using every experience to teach a lesson. Cornell was witty, truthful, and always had a good comeback. On May 16, 2023,

Cornell obligingly departed this life to eternal rest. As the ancestors envelop Cornell with love, he will meet again his family that preceded him in death: dear wife, Mina Kimble; parents,

Charlie and Ann Henderson; grandfather, Jeff Drain; daughter, Daphne

Sherard; uncle, Walter (Edna) Drain; grandsons, DeAndre N. Reeves and Jakarris M. Reeves; brothers, Bradford (Sheila) Henderson and Charles Henderson; sister, Shirley Henderson; nieces, Wanda Tatum and Lazonia Henderson; and nephew, Derrick Henderson.

Cornell's memory will be forever cherished by: children, Diamond Cole, Yvette Reeves, and Brenda Christian; sisters and brothers, Doris Henderson, Yvonne Henderson, Terese (Jasper) Dickerson, Daryl Henderson, Jerome Henderson, and Christopher (Marie) Henderson; supportive and devoted lifetime friend, Jimmy Chris; and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, doctors, and nurses.
