

Mr. Cyril Alonza Blades

June 27, 1926 - March 2, 2016

Cyril Alonza "Lonnie" Blades was born on June 27, 1926, to his mother Constance Blades and father, Clevey Davis in St. Philip, Barbados (West Indies). Cyril was united in holy matrimony to his loving wife, Ruby Agnella Blades at Bethel Methodist Church in Barbados, for over 48 years, whom he missed dearly after she passed. Cyril was blessed with five amazing children. Cyril moved to the United States , many years ago, first to Florida and then to Wisconsin. He completed his education in Barbados. Cyril was truly proud of his skills obtained in the Barbados Boy Scouts Association, as a proud Rover Scout. Cyril was employed by American Canning, as a laborer. In his leisure, Cyril enjoyed spending quality time with family and friends dancing, singing, listening to calypso-reggae music, cooking amazing Bajan cuisine for family and friends and watching television shows such as westerns, political news, and spiritual shows. Cyril was an incredible man, who believed in a solid foundation for his family. He always encouraged everyone to do their best. He worked extremely hard to take care of his family. Cyril Blades departed this life on March 2, 2016. He was preceded in death by his: wife, Ruby A. Blades; mother, Constance Blades; father, Clevey Davis; brother, Gerald Blades; sister, Shelia Blades-Durrant; and great-grandchild, Querriyana Gooding.
