SON,

You will be missed more than words can say. The reason I know what its like to love is because of you, your brother and sisters. I feel a multitude of emotions. We shared a special bond that can never be broken. A mothers love for her children is like no other. A mothers love is patient, and forgiving. A mothers love is not just someone who gave birth but someone who will love and support unconditionally. I love you son. I can't thank God enough for giving you to me. Rest well on your journey son. Gone but never forgotten My Duddabug,
Love Mom

SON,

I don't know how to finish grieving this tremendous loss & thoughts of you not being here with us anymore & probably never at this point Dakajion. I can still hear your voice when you say "hey dad" as we greet one another with a loving hug or over the phone. I think about you with so much love. I have many memories but that's nothing new, because you are not here with us physically you are here forever in our hearts. Today, I say to you, son, I miss you, I love you, I will forever will be thinking about you until we meet again at the pearly gates in the sky.

Love Dad
