“ Daniel:
I love you, and it’s hard for me to accept that your life is over. You were always such a cool, funny guy with a huge heart and so much love to give. I keep hearing your laugh, and so many of the stories I tell my kids start with you.

*“Dad, where’s the first place you drove when you got your license?”
“Me and Daniel went to pick up TT Ashley from school.”*

It’s always, “Me and Daniel this, me and Daniel that.”

I miss you, man.

Ms. Rose, Mr. Malcom, Kesha, Steve, and Willie — love y’all.

“  Forever My Best Friend

Friend, I can't count how many times I've picked up my phone to call you or had something to tell you—only to realize you won't pick up. Grief and denial are so real, and I still can't believe this is true.

One thing is certain: you will forever and always be my best friend. Your love, your laughter, and the memories we shared will stay with me for the rest of my life.

I love you, always.

“ Almighty God, we lift our hearts to you in sorrow for the loss of our beloved Daniel. Surround us with Your loving care and grant us the strength to carry this heavy burden. Help his parents , family and friends find comfort in Your word and Your promise of eternal life, and give them the grace to trust in Your unending love and mercy. May we all find solace in the knowledge that Daniel is in Your eternal embrace, free from pain. This we pray—amen  . Rose-Marie, please know that your Louisville family are with you during this difficult time and know that we are praying that you truly embrace the Lord strength to carry you through this valley. Cousin Lois Johnson.

*My sweet nephew,
Not a day goes by that I don't miss you. My heart aches, but I hold onto the memories—like how you would follow me around the house and say, "I'm going to tell Grandma" whenever things didn't go your way. Now you're with her, and I pray you both know how deeply you are loved and missed.*

*Forever in my heart,
Aunt Carla*
