

Mr. Danny McCloud

January 22, 1945 - March 20, 2018

Danny McCloud was born on January 22, 1945 in Milwaukee, Wisconsin to the union of Juanita and Lucius McCloud.

Danny received his education from the Milwaukee Public School System.

Danny was employed many years for The State of Wisconsin and Milwaukee County Mental Health, he retired when his health failed.

Danny's favorite pastime was watching CNN news, talking about Trump (who he named Crump), watching western dramas, movies and documentaries.

He enjoyed making people laugh by telling jokes as some might say lies.

He loved to be around people, never wanting them to leave, always having refreshments for them when they visited.

Danny was an avid history buff. He knew about presidents and could talk about them for hours. He loved traveling to places with history; such as Dr. Martin Luther King's church, the Tuskegee Airmen, and the Rosa Parks museum. He also participated in the Million Man March in D.C.

On Tuesday March 20, 2018 God saw the road had become rough for Danny. He gave him angel wings and told him, "You have fought a good fight, you have finished your course, rest now, your crown is in heaven."

Danny was preceded in death by his wife Marilyn Kay of 36 years, parents Juanita and Lucius McCloud, brother Alfred McCloud, sister Louise Williams

McCloud.

He leaves to cherish his memory: Fluffy his dog, his significant other Dorothy Smith, children Sharon McCloud (Milwaukee) and Timothy McCloud (Minnesota), step children Darryl Anderson and Nicole Wilburn, 5 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren., sister Virginia Porter, brothers Famous McCloud and Victor (Patricia) McCloud, one uncle Benjamin McCloud all of Milwaukee. Also, survived by nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of many friends.
