“ I know its been a minute since we talked and I haven't seen you in a while...even though I can't see your physical appearance I could NEVER FORGET YOU...as I'm typing all the memories are flashing and I can't do nothing but cry and laugh cause those were the BEST times ever I swear I wish I could rewind and relive/repeat...I know this may sound a little cheesy to say, but I really wish this all was just a dream and I could wake up and everything is back to the way it was...we all kick it hard as ever dude like ya'll was right behind us so we just had to walk through the alley trying not to get bit from that big dog...I remember that one day when you and Al came over n my moms came home I think early from work...I was sooo scared everybody was panicking I was like okay I got this science board from the science fair at school all I got to do is distract her by showing her the project while she was on the phone...u crawled out and Al tip toed out the house...I was trying to be funny the next time ya'll came over I was trying to be funny and said my momma outside and Al said "I'm just finna walk out" ...that was years ago but it still feel like everything happened jus yesterday and we all was just together...those were literally the funniest moments of my life hands down...I'm going to miss how you randomly called us and how you use to punch us in the arms...we use to run...I was just thinking how you and Al was the first and only dudes I smoked with it was like what three puffs...I'm not going to smoke wit nobody else that was a once in a lifetime thing...and I didn't choke or cough...the SB boyz was the realest I ever met REAL talk I don't think I can find replacements...like I said before even though I haven't seen you in a while I still feel like a part of me is missing that belongs to you and Al ...I wish you guys could see how much I have matured from being a irritating you know what...I guess cause I learned a lot from the both of you I give my highest respect with a thank you...I mean I can't just walk away from this experience and say I haven't learn nothing cause that would be a lie...but I know ya'll looking down on all of us smiling...I'm mad cause I know I could never get those moments back and...but at least I get to hug you the both of you in my dreams...I learned a saying that no one is truly gone unto no one remembers you...you already know that you will always be *here...gone but never forgotten your forever in our hearts...inside I'm hurt you know because I didn't have that opportunity to say I see you later...but I feel a little better cause I can say it know...I think grief is the hardest thing to deal with cause you feel alone and people don't understand you...they're not going to know the reason you act the way you do I learned that from personal experience ...c I knew I was going to say a lot but to sum up everything of course there is a lot more to say so until then ... Happy Birthday!! I Love You...ALWAYS,
