

Mr. Darrell Childs

September 30, 1959 - March 16, 2021

Darrell Childs, affectionately known as Dale, was born on September 30, 1959 to the union of Dave Childs, Sr. and Odean Childs in Milwaukee, WI. Dale received his formal education in Milwaukee County Public School Systems where he last attended Washington High School. Dale accepted Christ early in life and later converted to Islam in 1976.

Darrell enjoyed playing basketball, jogging and biking around the city, especially to the Lake Front. He loved music and sci-fi movies. He was also a Trekkie- an authority on all things Star Trek. Dale often built replicas of the U.S.S. Enterprise. Some of his favorite music artists were Earth Wind and Fire, Stevie Wonder and The Jackson Five. He was well known for his love of fried chicken so much that he was called "Chicken Man" by his neighborhood friends. And let's not forget how he loved to rib everybody. Some of his jokes would be so lame, he'd be the only one laughing! Dale's laughter was truly contagious, you couldn't help but to laugh right along with him.

On March 16, 2021, God called Dale home where he was reunited with his loving mother Odean, loving father Dave and his sister Sandra Childs.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his siblings; Mary Arms (Adilph), Lyneria McGhee, Freddie Childs, Dave Childs, Jr., Derrick Childs (Donna), Darren Childs and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.
