

Mr. Dave Childs Sr.

November 26, 1928 - November 12, 2019

Dave Childs, Sr., affectionately known as Madaddy, was born on November 26, 1928 to the union of Lewis and Ethel Childs in Sunflower, Mississippi. Madaddy received his formal education in the Sunflower County School system in Sunflower, Mississippi. Dave accepted Christ at an early age and later converted to Islam in 1976.

Dave was united in holy matrimony with Odean Hazelwood on October 28, 1946. Their union was blessed with eight children.

Madaddy was employed by A.O. Smith as a Welder for 33 years until he retired. Madaddy enjoyed fishing, playing the guitar, (SANG DOLL) is what he would tell Mamama, working on old cars and listening to the blues. Madaddy loved to have a crowd around him when he told true stories as well as those other ones, 101. He loved telling jokes, going to the race-tracks and gardening. Madaddy was an avid Brewers and Packers fan! He was always there to give good sound advice and to tell you if you were doing something wrong, he would teach you to right those wrongs.

On November 12th, God called Madaddy home where he was greeted by his beautiful wife Odean, parents Lewis and Ethel, and daughter Sandra Childs.

He leaves to cherish his memory: Mary Arms (Adolph), Lyneria McGhee (Lee), Freddie Childs, Dave Childs, Jr., Darrell Childs, Derrick Childs (Donna), Darren Childs, 19 Grandchildren, 39 Great Grandchildren, 7 Great-Great Grandchildren, and a host of siblings, family and friends.
