

Mr. David Charles Banks

July 14, 1948 - April 13, 2017

David C. Banks was born on July 14, 1948 to the union of Curtis and Verna Banks in Magnolia, Arkansas.

David accepted Christ as his Savior at the tender age of nine and was united with King Hill AME Church where he sung in the choir. After he relocated to Milwaukee, he united with St. Mark AME Church.

David received his formal education at Walker High School in Magnolia, AK. He later furthered his education at the Milwaukee Area Technical College as an electrician in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

On August 30, 1969 in Magnolia, AK, David was united in holy matrimony with Ernestine Griffin. Their union was blessed with one child.

David enlisted into the United States Army in September of 1969 and was honorably discharged in February of 1975.

He was employed at Briggs and Stratton as an electrician for 30 years. In his leisure he enjoyed listening to music, playing cards, dominos, and watching sports events, especially the Green Bay Packers, the Milwaukee Bucks and the Milwaukee Brewers.

He was a member of International Free and Accepted Modern Masons, Inc. and Order of the Eastern Star for 23 years.

David Charles Banks departed this life on April 13, 2017. He was preceded in death by his father, Curtis Banks: and seven siblings, Johnny J. Banks, Artis Lee Banks, Willie James Banks, Chester Ray Banks, Bobbie Ray Banks, Olanda Banks, Debra Kay Banks, and Kenneth Ray Banks. He leaves to cherish his many memories: his mother, Verna Banks; two brothers, Ira R. Banks and Archie (Betty) Banks; one sister, Joe Ann Banks; his son, Bernard (Rachel) Banks; grandchildren, Mackenzie and Zoey; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
