

Mr. David Robertson

November 11, 1944 - March 4, 2020

David (Bro) Robertson was born in Baton Rouge, LA. November 11, 1944 to the late Marjorie M. Toussaint and the late Leslie Robertson. He was educated in Zion City School in Baton Rouge and continued his education informally throughout his lifetime. David was employed for 37 years at Piccadilly Cafeteria, Inc. He held various positions and his hard work and dedication led to numerous promotions allowing him to end his career as a cook. After his retirement from Piccadilly he relocated to Milwaukee, WI in September of 2005.

David was a mixed media portrait artist. He was fluent in charcoal, watercolor and acrylic. It was always a joy to watch his artwork come to life.

He loved mechanical drawing and had a natural bent towards engineering. To that end, he loved to take things apart and most of the time he'd get them back together! Every now and then you would be reminded that he was a tinkerer.

David leaves to cherish his memory his loving aunt Gloria Neff and uncle Roosevelt Neff of Milwaukee, WI. 16 cousins Veronica Neff, Anthony (Teia) Neff, Alyssa Neff, Aaron Neff, Tonja Bassett (Jonathan Wilson), Virgil Ross of Milwaukee, WI. Sonya (Jason) Noah of Chicago, IL. Ronald Ross, Constance (Nathaniel) Randolph, Gerald (Charlene) Hill and Rev. Linda Drewery of Baton Rouge, LA. David was preceded in death by his parents Marjorie M. Toussaint and Leslie Robertson, his grandmother Mrs. Patsy Toussaint, and one brother Amos Wade.
