“ Hello,my name is Stephanie McAllum, I want to offer my condolences. I want to say that I was at Northwest on Saturday and happened to see the name Della Poindexter on the board. I am more than sure that I attended MATC with Mrs. Poindexter. If she is the right one, I dropped her off at home one time at the west lawn housing complex. I lost contact with her, I really should have kept in contact with her. She is the only Della Poindexter I know here in Wisconsin. So I am pretty sure that She may be the Della I know. Her name stood out right away. I was looking for her picture on-line on jsonline but I didn't find any thing. Well I am not going to take up anymore of your time, I would like to say;Look to the Lord from whence commeth you help;because all of your help commeth from the Lord! God Bless You. I plan to come to the services because I would like to know if she's the one that I know.##imported-begin##Stephanie McAllum##imported-end##
