“ Dear Landon:
Words cannot express the sadness that I feel for you and your family in the passing of your dearly beloved wife. I cannot pretend to know how you are feeling, but just know that you and your family are in my prayers and that I will be thinking of you in your time of sorrow. I pray that God will keep you and never leave you. One of my favorite passages from the bible is, "Look to the hills from whence cometh my help, all my help comes from the Lord." Because he made all things and all things shall pass away, but God's word and His strength shall forever be with us. So be encouraged.

Sincerely,

Teresa Elam###imported-begin##Teresa###imported-end##

“ I'm deeply sorry for you and your family. Lois will always be with you in love and memories. She glowed everytime I talked to her and mentioned your name. She's in a better place with no pain or suffering. I wish words could explain how I fell. I wish I could bare some of your pain because you mean so much to me as a friend first and a classmate second. I want be able to attend the service but my heart and prayers are with you and your family. I'm only a phone call away. Rose Ree and Family.##imported-begin##Rose Marie Williams##imported-end##

“ Landon,

As we have have spoken, My family's heart and prays have always gone out to you, Lois and your entire family. Words can't express the loss that is felt in our hearts at this time.

Keep your head up, as I know you have done in the past. I know that you realize that we serve a God of "ALL" power. Since he have "ALL" power, he will most certainly see you and the entire family through to a brighter day.

We lost a Beautiful lady inside and out that will NEVER be forgotten, but God have gained an "Angel"

We Love you dear,
