“ I first met Marshell at our Army Reserve station and knew at first sight that this was a special person. He held such a quiet confidence and sense of service that was greatly unmatched even while going through his trial of affliction! My prayer is that he has made it to his place of heavenly rest and eternal peace, where he can be with Jesus in glory!###imported-begin###Donte###imported-end##

“ Anthony Marshell was an extraordinary member of our court staff. As you might expect, being a bailiff in criminal court was no picnic, but Marshell always treated everyone with respect and dignity. He will always symbolize to me and to others how important it is to never feel sorry for yourself. Despite dealing with his cancer treatment, he would come to work with his legendary smile and great attitude. Whenever it seems that life is too hard, remember the lessons learned through Marshell’s example. To Marshell’s family and friends, my deepest sympathy.###imported-begin###Judge Carl Ashley###imported-end##

“ The Army has lost an exceptional soldier. Even in the face of a devastating foe Sergeant Marshall’s upbeat & “Can Do” attitude was an inspiration to all with whom he served. No matter the task, no matter his physical capability, Sergeant Marshall eagerly and steadfastly remained engaged in body and spirit. And although he lost his ultimate mortal battle, he was truly a courageous hero. May his jovial demeanor and ever positive attitude always reflect in all who knew him. ##imported-begin##James C. “ “Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning.” My heart is so very heavy right now, but I have to remember that Marshall is no longer in pain or suffering. The Lord will never put more than we can bare on any of us that loved Marshall. Marshall is now resting peacefully. I will miss his beautiful smile, the talks we use to have, him coming to my courtroom to see me, and the list goes on. No matter how much pain he was in he still kept that smile. One of his many saying was “Everybody loves me, I’m the greatest.” I LOVE YOU Marshall, my best friend and little brother until we meet again. ##imported-begin##Vanessa Lee##imported-end##

“ *My Dear Tony, It's been an awesome adventure. I have been truly blessed to have you as a part of my life; as a coworker, partner and friend. Im sure you are sitting in the bed with the remote control smaking on some Peanut Butter Kap n Krunch looking down on us all with that cheesy grin on your face. You were truly amazing. A friend indeed. I thank you so much for everything you have deposited into my life. Thanks Tony, for teaching me so much. Some of those lessons have proved invaluable. Thanks for having such a huge heart to go with that huge smile. I am trying not to be sad and to think of all the great memories I have. But it's pretty darn hard. You truly are a great person. “ *Marshell was the example of hard work and leadership. He managed to keep a smile, even when we knew at times he wasn't feeling well. He had a wonderful sense of humor. He was direct, kind, and some times brutally honest! But we would have it no other way. He will be greatly, greatly missed. “ I use to joke with Marshell that if a fight broke out at the jail he should lock himself in a cell to be safe. There will be no more corny jokes. But, I'm thankful that I got a chance to laugh with him.

Rest in peace, you have finished your race.

“ He’s in a better place right now
Than he’s ever been before;
All pain is gone; he’s now at rest;
Nothing troubles him anymore.
It’s we who feel the burden of
Our sadness and our grief;
We have to cry, to mourn our loss,
Before we get relief.
We know we’ll reconnect with him
At the end of each life’s road;
We’ll see his cherished face again
When we release our earthly load. I am forever grateful to have been a close friend.##imported-begin##Kesha Cole
