

Mrs. Doris Ann McNeail

April 22, 1933 - October 15, 2017

DORIS ANN McNEAIL was born on April 22, 1933, to the union of Willie Mae and John Washington Clayton in Sumiton, Alabama. She received her formal education at Dora High School, in Dora, Alabama. Doris accepted Christ as her Savior, at an early age. Doris Ann Clayton was united in holy matrimony with Leroy McNeail on June 10, 1951, in Sumiton, Alabama. Their union was blessed with five children. Doris was employed by Columbia Art Works, as a bindery operator, for more than 20 years. Doris was a woman with a great sense of humor, big heart, quick wit, feisty temper and forgiving spirit. She was an amazing cook and loving mother & grandmother. In her spare time, Doris enjoyed playing cards, dominoes, drinking coffee and playing video games, with the children and grandchildren. Doris Ann McNeail departed this life on October 15, 2017. She was preceded by death by her: husband, Leroy McNeail; parents, John and Willie Mae Clayton; siblings: Elizabeth Johnson, Oliver Hurst Clayton, Clearance Norman Clayton, Warren Clayton, Joyce Clayton and Jerry Clayton. She leaves to cherish her memory her: five sons: Kenny McNeail of Minnesota, Warren McNeail of Wisconsin, John McNeail of Wisconsin, Timothy (Sharren) McNeail of Wisconsin and Joel McNeail of Wisconsin; three brothers: Alfred Clayton of Florida, William Clayton of Alabama and Danny Clayton of Alabama; two sisters: Carol Nicholson of Wisconsin and Earlene Leeth of South Carolina; seven grandchildren: Dexter, Bree, Joel, Timothy, Jasmine, Olivia and Chloe; four great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, relative and friends.
