

Mr. Dwayne Glosson

November 2, 1960 - February 18, 2024

Dwayne Glosson was born to the union of Betty D. Glosson and Henry G. Glosson Sr. on November 2, 1960 in Milwaukee Wisconsin and accepted Christ at an early age. Dwayne was the oldest of 5 children and truly enjoyed being around his family. Growing up Dwayne was always surrounded by many cousins who were more like his brothers and sisters: They would all gather around and hang out on "Big Momma's" front porch on 23rd & Vine creating unbreakable bonds with each other. He could be seen at any giving moment riding his bike throughout the neighborhood probably searching for his favorite food to eat which was macaroni and cheese. Dwayne enjoyed helping his mom remodel her home. He was a Floor Technician and Painter for many years at Westside Housing Co-op. His hobbies included watching old western movies, body building and volunteering for many organizations in which he received many awards for his service. His early education was with the Milwaukee Public School system he graduated from West Division High School on June 13, 1980. Dwayne was preceded in death by his (Father) Henry G. Glosson Sr.;
