

Mr. Edwin Gregory Curtis

January 23, 1965 - August 19, 2023

Edwin Gregory Curtis was born January 23, 1965, to Joseph Curtis and Bernice Daley in the parish of St. James, Jamaica. Greg, as he was affectionately known, was the second child born to this union.

Before migrating to the United States, Greg attended Catherine Hall Primary and Montego Bay

Secondary School. After graduating, he went to work at Maddens Funeral Home as a carpenter. He became very skilled in carpentry and was able to build various types of furniture.

As a child, he was often described as gentle, quiet, and loving. His kindness and gentle manner were especially evident with his mother, siblings, and later with his son, Kingston. He was a very good friend to others, and there was never a person who met Greg that was not affected by his infectious smile. Those who knew and loved him, knew that one of his greatest passions was cooking, which led him to investing in his own business. Greg spent the later part of his life working alongside Kingston as a food truck vendor.

Edwin Gregory Curtis departed this life on August 19, 2023. He was preceded in death by his father,

Joseph Curtis, and older brother, Patrick.

He is survived by his: mother, Bernice Daley; son, Kingston Curtis-Barnes;

Bridgette Barnes (mother of Kingston); sister, Delsha Curtis; and brothers, Glenroy Curtis, Sebastian Chambers, and Aaron Gayle.
