“ Today I find myself still coming to this page to re-read post from individuals that loved and cared for you. Not a single day goes by that I don't think about you. I have a photo of us on my phone so whenever I pick up my phone to make a call check a email or anything I see your smiling face. Grandma I had a baby on March 5th 2021. His name is Samuel I'm sure of you were here you would love him. I tell him about you all the time I will be sure he knows who you were and are to me. Love you forever

“ I still remember how you would give me money after church and ball it up so small in my hand so no one else could see. As you placed it in my hand you would say "keep it to yourself". No matter how old I got, your dollar amount never increased. I will forever love and respect your memory.

“ I find myself still picking up the phone to call you. Praying that a miracle will happen, and you'd pick up the phone and say " hi baby". Still missing you, and not wanting to let you go. I know heaven is a little bit brighter because you're there

“ My Grandmother was really that....a G R A N D mother. I find myself wondering how I could live up to her standards, like how did she love me soooooo much and still found time and love for everyone else. She really gave of herself in every way, she was a great display of the fruitages of the spirit...especially love because I always felt her love, always. She gave me the BEST advice, she would listen and encourage me. She had real remedies for every sort of issue or pain....I am missing her so much today. I cannot ride by her house without my heart pumping extra hard...it's so sad! I would give anything to run her to goodwill, lol, and have her force me to buy stuff I didn't need and toys the kids didn't need. I will forever miss her. She is my piece of gold and I am really missing her. I pray for comfort because this is harder than anything I have ever experienced. Sleep grandma, sleep. I got this.

*My name is michelle nolden i am the second oldest grandchild. My granny was more like a mother ro us. All her grandkids and and great grandkids wand great great grandkids were her PEACE OF GOLDS EVEN HER NIECES AND NEPHEWS. I am gone miss her ao much. You can call her for anything at any time ahe always had answers for everything. She always their ro listen to are problems no matter what time it is. Im gone miss taking her to make grocеры as she say lol, also what she really like was going to feed the ducks, going to lunch. She gone make you tale some gas money. My granny was everything to us, she cooked for us all the time.she didnt want my mom sending food over her house on weekends or summers that we spend with her. I remember the firstl time my parent took us to spend the summer with our other grandmother down south my granny said we didnt not have to go that if my mom and dad want to go thats them lol. She too good care of all of us on a fix income she never complained about nothing. Us grandkids always had plenty of toys and books to read. Her basement was loaded with all kinds of toys. We never was board at her house. All the cousins and siblings we had always stayed at my granny house at the same time. She made us pillows out of pillow cases and clothes lol we had fun. I miss late night we sit on the porch eating ice cream, watermelon or fish and granny wood put the t.v on porch we had blankets and everything . This was a very amazing woman she was their for everybody at any time we need her
Rest up granny until we meet again, you truly gone be missed*

“ What can I say about a God given woman!! There are not enough words to summarize the love she gave to so many! So I say "she is now absent in the body to us, but present in the spirit with the Lord!" You have fought a good fight & finished your course! Rest on my sweet Mother Elizabeth King! Love you forevermore!!

“ Some of the best childhood memories were with auntie Elizaebth. I was so attached to my mom and did not want her to go to work. Auntie comforted me and made me know there were others that loved me. What a sweet and kind woman. She always made me feel like her home was home for me.

Thank God for my auntie Elizabeth.

Love you and one day I will see you in heaven.

“ What can I say about a women that showed me such love. Mother King has been my grandma from the day I was born. Although we weren't biologically connected her love NEVER reflected any thing less than 100% natural grandmother. I will forever miss your sweet voice telling me to "Be Sweet" and offering me food as soon as I walk on your home. Your amazing smile will always light my path. Thank you for loving me, and teaching me how to love. I will always be your baby!!
Love you forever Miriam Madujibeya
