“ I always referred to her as "Aunt Ella" because I always loved that name and thought it was so elegant. Whenever we spoke, we would always find something to laugh about. One of the funniest stories she related was when her brother Omer (my Dad) and her sister, Aunt Georgia, decided to play music and dance. She said they danced and danced. They invited her out on the dance floor but she refused. She said the next morning, neither of them could hardly move. Knowing how much my Dad and Aunt Georgia loved to "cut up" together, this story always makes me laugh. We never ended a conversation without telling each other "I love you." I love you Aunt Ella.

“ The last day I spoke with my granny was on Friday, February 14, 2014 and I told her I Love You Granny, and as she would always say, I Love You All Too, Nett. She was our rock and we will miss her greatly. This comes as no surprise because I made sure that every time we talked I would let her know just how thankful I was to God for blessing me to have her in my life as her granddaughter-in-law. I will miss hearing her answer when I call and I ask her what you doing granny and she would answer nothing honey. I will love you forever and always.
