

Mrs. Ella Mae Stewart

July 9, 1930 - October 8, 2012

Ella Mae Stewart was born on July 9, 1930 to Sally Riley Bush and Will Bush in Durant, Mississippi. She received her formal education in the Cairo, Illinois and Milwaukee, Wisconsin public school systems.

Ella moved to Milwaukee with her beloved sister Dolly. There she met Ivory Stewart, with whom she was united in holy matrimony on February 7, 1948. This union was blessed with four children.

Ella accepted Christ as her Lord and savior at an early age and was united with Evergreen Missionary Baptist Church in Milwaukee. She was an active and faithful member, until her age and health prevented her from attending regularly.

Ella traveled extensively and had friends from every walk of life. She knew no strangers and talked to anyone and everyone; she was a people person. Ella was a fabulous cook with specialties too numerous to name, but her signature dishes were macaroni and cheese and sock-it-to-me cake.

Ella Mae Stewart leaves to cherish her memory, her children, Barbara Stewart of Milwaukee, WI, Helen Royal of Chico, CA and Thelma Stewart of New York; three grandchildren, Kenneth, Brian and Cherneeka; four great grandchildren, Kiersten, Drew, Haley and Bre'on; and many nieces, nephews, relatives, friends and former co-workers, including her close friend and travel companion, Jackie Terry.

Ella departed this life on October 8, 2012. She was preceded in death by her husband, Ivory Stewart; her only son, Thurman (Peresa); parents, Sally Riley Bush and Will Bush; brothers, Japhus, Dan and William; and sisters, Priscilla, Johnnie Mae and Willie Mae.
