

Mrs. Emma Lee Davis

September 19, 1927 - September 17, 2015

Emma L. Davis was born on September 19, 1927, in Camden, Arkansas, to Otis and Ida Jones. She received her early education at Bluff Springs Elementary in Louann, Arkansas and her high school diploma at Smackover High School in Smackover, Arkansas. Emma continued her education for two years at Arkansas Baptist College. Emma accepted Christ at an early age, and was baptized at Good Home Baptist Church in Louann, Arkansas.

She was joined in holy matrimony to James L. Davis on December 22, 1952. To this happy union they have one son, James Michael. Emma worked at the Veteran's Administration Hospital (VA) as a food service manager. After 32 years she retired. Her passion for cooking continued over the years.

Emma was a very active member at Greater Galilee Baptist Church where she served faithfully until her illness. She was a member of the Circle of Esther Missionary Group, the Senior Citizen Ministry, and the Intercessory Prayer Band. Anyone that knew Emma, knew she would not let anything interrupt her daily prayer time, faithfully at noon and 5:30p.m. She would get off the phone, turn off the tv, and stop whatever she was doing to make sure to secure that time. If you were around her, she would make you pray with her.
