“ Beautiful and wise and loving, Mrs. Emma Fenceroy! I just learned of your passing to your next journey in our Savior's loving arms, surrounded by your loved ones. I met you during your first year of teaching at Washington High School in Milwaukee. You were Miss Colbert than and I had the privilege of having you as my teacher for a number of subjects. You met and married Mr. Fenceroy and the joy in your life lit up the room wherever you were. You blessed me and all your students for the next 3 years I was there. You were always caring, educating us and wise beyond your years. We had the honor of meeting you again when my son went to Vincent High School and your were the guidance counselor. I will miss you and will always fondly and gratefully remember how gracious you were to me and all who had the honor of crossing your path. My prayers and thoughts go out to your family.

“ Sweet, Mrs. Fenceroy. I adopted her as my school mom as her son Mike and I were born the same day and year. Mrs. Fenceroy played a MAJOR role in me graduating from Vincent High School a semester early. She was available for me to talk to during a lot of tough times in my life. She convinced me not to drop out of high school. She was the reason I pursued a masters degree to become a guidance counselor (like her).

She told me to straighten up and "fly right" on many days. I talked to her a few days after her retirement party in 1999. "You just missed my retirement party. If you would've could earlier, I would've invited you", she said. I wouldn't have missed it except for being dead.

Mrs. Fenceroy, you were a jewel to Milwaukee Public Schools, especially to us students at Harold Vincent High School in Granville. We will miss you. I will miss. I hope to see you on the other side, in eternity.

To Mr. Fencrooy, Mike, and Felicia: thank you for sharing her with her other kids at work.

Love,

DeShon S, FaNaka
